THE cry that the Germans are against GRANT for a Third Term is being kept up, mainly because a few of them who were against him for a Second Term are now renewing their old attempt at anything-to-beat Grant. Anyone who will take the trouble to turn back to the record of the campaign to turn back to the record of the campaign of 1872 will find ample proof of the truth of this assertion. But the result of that contest proved the utter unreliability of the assertion made then as now to the effect that the German vote is carried in the public, his ability, high character and pockets of a few political leaders. The truth is, the German-Americans of to-day are among the most independent and selfare among the most independent and selfreliant of all our varied citizenship. A strong, fearless and honest patriot at the head of the Republican ficket would insure its triumph over any known candidate the Democrats may put up, for the latter party is deplorably poverty-stricken as regards its possessions of seasoned timber. POLITICAL NOTES.

SENATOR BAYARD is charged with calling the gentleman from Matte "Old Hamlin."

All but six members of the Utah legislature which met on Monday, are polygamists.

Ton Hexparers has been making Sunday-school addresses. This kills him with the Democracy.

The Democratic papers of the South have a great admiration for ex-Governor Garceion, of Maine. GENERAL CHAMBERLAIN knows a Governor when he sees him. He has been a Governor himself. THE politicians are for Sherman, while the peo-de are for General Grant—Clereford Lender (Rep.

The United States grand fury have failed to find an indictment against the Kuckiks shooters of the colored postmaster, Nix, at Blackville, S. U., having no desire, probably, to be shot themserves.

In any start troops as the polls have caused the Democracy a great deal of distress, but real troops at the counting-in of a fraudulent legislature seem to rather soothe the boys than otherwise.

This Buffalo there's, a stanch Democratic paper, at that disposed to suistain the Maine fraud, has thought better of itself, and now pronounces that gigantic intamy "a great partical wrong."

FOR THE DISTRICT!

The papers are useing why the Democracy is so ulet, about these days robative to their candidate ir the Presidency. It is because they have all any can do to arrange for the Republican nomintion.

When the Peorla Democrat assurts that the lectoral vote of lithings will be given to the semocratic candidate, whoever he may be, it subably contemplates carrying this State by the ame methods that Garceion carried the State of faine. It cannot be done in any other way.
